GUIDES IN HOLYWELL HAVE FUN EXPLORING THEIR GUIDING HISTORY

Girlguiding Cymru received over £41,000 from the Heritage Lottery Fund, Young Roots project to help young people explore their heritage. The Young Roots project enabled local young volunteers from across Wales to discover the history behind Girlguiding in their local area.

2ND Holywell Guides were one of the six Girlguiding Cymru Units that were selected to carry out the Young Roots project. The Units carried out interviews with past members as well as key community figures that had some involvement with their Unit. The girls looked at old photographs, badges, uniform and memorabilia to discover and gain a greater understanding of what guiding used to be like years ago.

2nd Holywell Guides focussed their project on researching the history of 'Ty Clwyd'- their guiding headquarters in Llanfairtalhaiarn, with their favourite discovery learning all about the endless camps that had taken place there over the years.

As part of the project there was a Young Roots showcase conference held at Girlguiding Cymru's Headquarters, Broneirion on 11 March. The participants each had the opportunity to share their findings with the wider community.

Ebony, 13 said: “I really enjoyed telling everyone at the conference about Ty Clwyd and its history and how special is it to guiding.”

Bethany, Unit Leader who lead the project said: “It was really interesting working on the Young Roots project, learning about Ty Clwyd and sharing it with the Guides. I’ve stayed at Ty Clwyd lots of times on for camps and activity days so it was really interesting finding all about it.”

The project was a great success and provided the girls with the opportunity to learn new skills as well as learning about the history of the organisation.

Girls in guiding can get involved in everything from science experiments and performing arts, to adventure sports and community action projects. For more information about volunteering or how to become a member visit www.girlguiding.org.uk.
