BROWNIES AND GUIDES IN LLANRHYSTUD HAVE FUN EXPLORING THEIR GUIDING HISTORY

Girlguiding Cymru received over £41,000 from the Heritage Lottery Fund, Young Roots project to help young people explore their heritage. The Young Roots project enabled local young volunteers from across Wales to discover the history behind Girlguiding in their local area.

Llanrhystud Brownies and Guides were one of the six Girlguiding Cymru Units who were selected to carry out the Young Roots project. The Units carried out interviews with past members as well as key community figures that had some involvement with their Unit. The girls looked at old photographs, badges, uniform and memorabilia to discover and gain a greater understanding of what their Units used to be like years ago.

As part of the project there was a Young Roots showcase conference held at Girlguiding Cymru's Headquarters, Broneirion on 11 March. The participants each had the opportunity to share their findings with the wider community.

The Llanrhystud Brownies and Guides enjoyed the experience so much they have decided to continue looking at Welsh heritage and culture this term!

Tesni, 9, said: “Taking part in the conference today was so exciting and I can’t wait to carry on exploring the heritage of Girlguiding with our Unit”

Penny, Unit Leader who led the project said: “The Young Roots project has been so interesting, it has reminded me just how much Guiding has benefitted the local community and I’m excited to continue contributing to this. Girlguiding has played a huge part of my life, It’s an organisation which I’m really proud to be a part of.”

The project was a great success and provided the girls with the opportunity to learn new skills as well as learning about the history of the organisation.

Girls in guiding can get involved in everything from science experiments and performing arts, to adventure sports and community action projects. For more information about volunteering or how to become a member visit www.girlguiding.org.uk.
